POSITION DESCRIPTION

Financial Institutions Examiner

This is the entry, working, and journey level of the series. Under close supervision, entry level examiners are trained to assume increasing responsibility in the examination of the financial condition of institutions, business firms, and services that are regulated by the Department. At this level, the scope and variety of work is limited by established policies, procedures, guidelines, or technical practices.

At the working level, incumbents work under supervision performing work of average difficulty in the examination of financial institutions, business firms, and services to ensure compliance with Department laws and regulations.

At the journey level, Financial Institutions Examiners work under general supervision performing technical work and making financial analyses in the examination of more complex State-licensed financial institutions, business firms, and services; assist in larger examinations; act as the examiner-in-charge directing and working with a team of examiners to provide the licensee with competent, expeditious, and cost-effective supervision.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Examination and/or Employment Application (STD 678) forms are available at the California Department of Human Resources, local offices of the Employment Development Department, and through your CalCareer Account.

If you meet the requirements stated on this examination bulletin, you may take this examination, which is competitive. Possession of the entrance requirements does not assure a place on the eligible list. Your performance in the examination described in this bulletin will be rated against a predetermined job-related rating, and all applicants who pass will be ranked according to their score.

The Department of Business Oversight reserves the right to revise the examination plan to better meet the needs of the service, if the circumstances under which this examination was planned change. Such revision will be in accordance with civil service laws and rules and all applicants will be notified.

General Qualifications: Applicants must possess essential personal qualifications including integrity, initiative, dependability, good judgement, the ability to work cooperatively with others, and a state of health consistent with the ability to perform the assigned duties of the class. A medical examination may be required. In open examinations, investigation may be made of employment records and personal history and fingerprinting may be required.

Eligible Lists: Eligible lists established by competitive examination, regardless of date, must be used in the following order: 1) sub-divisional promotional, 2) departmental promotional, 3) multi-departmental promotional, 4) servicewide promotional, 5) departmental open, 6) open. When there are two lists of the same kind, the older must be used first. Eligible lists will expire in one to four years unless otherwise stated on the bulletin.

High School Equivalence: Equivalence to completion of the 12th grade may be demonstrated in any one of the following ways: 1) passing the General Education Development (GED) Test; 2) completion of 12 semester units of college-level work; 3) certification form the State Department of Education, a local school board, or high school authorities that the competitor is considered to have education equivalent to graduation from high school; or 4) for clerical and accounting classes, substitution of business college work in place of high school on a year-for-year basis.
